The current job scene for OHS

Book Now

What: The current job scene for OHS – what’s different now

Who: Helen O’Keefe, Founder & Principal Consultant, HOK Talent Solutions

Details: What’s the current job scene for OHS? The news is that at the moment there are more roles on offer than candidates, according to Helen O’Keefe, who runs a leading national health & safety executive search agency. Helen will discuss the reasons for the current shortage of applicants happening across the board in a range of industries, as well as in different levels and roles in the OHS field.

She will be offering advice to recruiters, current job seekers and people trying to decide whether to move in the current job climate. “When you have a candidate-led market, the traditional recruitment methods may not work,” says Helen. “Candidates also need to consider certain things carefully before accepting a new role.”

Helen will talk about how workplace changes during the pandemic have led to some organisations creating different OHS roles or adding new requirements.

The session will conclude with discussion and questions from the audience.
