Safety beyond city limits

Book Now

What: Safety beyond city limits

Who: Phil Dwyer & Carly Chambers, OHS Officers, South West Institute of TAFE

Details: How do you keep in contact with safety colleagues and issues out in the country? Phil Dwyer, from regional Warrnambool in Victoria, will give us an insight into this on 13 August when he talks about regional safety networks and his own job as OHS Officer - Audit, Risk and Compliance, at multi-campus South West Institute of TAFE.

Phil is a keen member of safety networking groups: Warrnambool Area of Safety and Health Group (WASH Group) and the TAFE Safety Network Group that covers Victoria. He is also a member of Central Safety Group.

Phil and his colleague, OHS Officer Carly Chambers, will talk about how they operate, spending a great deal of time on the road keeping safety tabs on a network of diverse regional TAFE sites.

Carly and Phil are looking forward to telling their story, followed by questions and discussions from the CSG Zoom audience.
