

Central Safety Group Inc. Monthly Event

November 2026

Designing good work

Book Now

What: Designing good work

Who: Dr Kat Page, Leadership Partner, ByMany

Details: What if work wasn't the problem but the solution to wellbeing? That is the premise of the fascinating book 'Good Work – Transform Your Work from the Inside Out', released earlier this year by organisational psychologist and leadership partner Dr Kat Page.

Central Safety Group offers you the opportunity to hear from Kat at our monthly event on Tuesday 10 November, where she will challenge the idea that work is inherently harmful.

Drawing on science, stories, and practical tools, Kat's book shows how leaders and teams can design work that's both human and high-performing.

Good Work is both a guide and a call to collective action. It's written for leaders, change-makers, and anyone ready to change work for good – for themselves and for others.

Kat's book has been highly recommended by CSG members, including Kevin Jones. Don't miss your chance to meet Kat and join what is bound to be a very stimulating discussion.
